Relation: Sister in law

I am thankful for all the love that Barbara showed me after I became part of the family through marrying her little brother. Her generosity and thoughtfulness were legendary and will remain examples close to both our hearts as Peter and I keep adjusting to life without her. Enjoy Jesus' overflowing love, Barbara...we will be so happy to see you again one day with Him.

Relation: Life long nursing friend

Hello Paul and family,

What amazing memories I have with your wife and mom. We spent 3 years together on 3rd floor of the VGH School of Nursing. As family's were built, we would meet around Christmas to catch up on family news. I remember Barb always had the cutest giggle and smiling was as natural as breathing. She loved life immensely and fulfilled the divine purpose our Lord built into her heart. When she entered Glory, her mom and step-dad and grandparents and ancestors she had never met before met her on her arrival. What a reunion that was! Cause the most important there was Jesus, smiling on Barb. Kids, life is so short and sooo precious. Live out her legacy in your own lives. That will be the greatest gift you could give your mom. And one day, you'll be greeted at the gate by your mom.
