

REMEMBERING
Drozdowich Bryan

December 11, 1952 - October 12, 2013

Bryan, my best friend and husband passed away into the presence of the Lord on October 12, 2013 surrounded by his family, after a courageous battle with cancer. Bryan was born in 1952 in Alberta and moved with his family to the Fraser Valley when he was 5 years of age. He spent the majority of his life as a successful businessman, inventor, mentor, peacemaker, comedian, storyteller and friend to everyone who crossed his path. He will leave a large gap in our hearts. Survived by his wife Sally and three children, Amanda (Nick), Matthew and Jordan and a wonderful grandson Carter; he will be sorely missed by his mother Leona Drozdowich Schaeffer; sisters Julie Ottosen (Carl), Rea Smith (Tom), Trudy Stoelting (Rye) Sharon Wray (Alex) and Sandra Drozdowich; many aunts, uncles, cousins and numerous nieces and nephews. Bryan was predeceased by his father William Gordon Drozdowich and niece Andrea Ottosen. A celebration of life will be held Friday, October 25, 2013 at 1:30 p.m. at Cascade Community Church, 35190 Delair Road, Abbotsford. The family would like to thank the staff in the ER and the NCU at Abbotsford Regional Hospital. In lieu of flowers, donations in memory of Bryan may be made to the Salvation Army or Abbotsford Christ the King Church for outreach programs.
