

REMEMBERING

Graham Eric Danyluk

April 5, 1977 - April 18, 2024

Graham Danyluk, beloved husband, father, grandfather, brother, son, and friend, passed away suddenly on April 18th, 2024, at the age of 47. Graham was born on April 5th, 1977, in Canora, Saskatchewan, to Leanne Stokes and the late Robert Danyluk.

Graham was a man of many talents and passions. He dedicated his life to hard work and was known for his determination and courage. Graham's work history was as impressive as his interests were; from working in mechanics and tow truck driving with his father, to being recognized for his speed as the fastest tire changer in his company. Most recently he worked as a truck driver for his stepfather, Mark, and was regularly recognized as someone who was willing to go above and beyond.

Outside of work, Graham's true happiness came from spending time with his family in the outdoors. Whether he was fishing, camping, water skiing on the lake, or snow skiing in the mountains, Graham felt most at peace surrounded by nature and the ones he loved. He also had a passion for games and was often found challenging his family and friends to friendly competitions.

A man of strength and resilience, Graham will be remembered as a hero to all who knew him. He was a man who was beyond selfless and always went out of his way to help others. He encountered many strangers in need of help during his time on the road, and he'd never hesitate to pull over and lend a hand. His legacy of hard work and dedication will continue to inspire all who were fortunate enough to have crossed paths with him.

In February of 1996, Graham met Ronda Foden—the love of his life. On January 2nd, 1999, Graham and Ronda married at Immanuel Church, and for the next 25 years their marriage was filled with love, devotion, and passion.

Graham was a devoted father to his three children Emilio (Hannah), Sierra (Mike), and Allison. He was also a proud grandfather to Charlotte, Michael, Caroline, Annie, and Walter. His family meant everything to him, and he poured his heart and soul into ensuring their happiness and well-being.

In addition to his wife, children, and grandchildren, Graham is survived by his mother, Leanne; his stepfather, Mark; his siblings, Tommy and Martina; and his stepmother, Delores. He was preceded in death by his father, Robert Danyluk, whom he held dear in his heart.

A memorial service to honour Graham's life will be held on June 7th, 2024, at 2:00 PM at Immanuel Church on Blue Jay Street, Abbotsford, BC, Canada. May his soul rest in peace, surrounded by the love and memories he created during his time on earth.

In lieu of flowers, please contact Graham's family if you would be willing to contribute towards the cost of the funeral and necessities, as his death was completely unexpected. Any and every amount is deeply appreciated.
