Tribute from Roger Jagpal

Relation: neighbour

I wanted to pay respects on behalf of my family. I had the pleasure of seeing Graham every once in a while when I was visiting our old house on Grouse. I also moved back there after I was married and talked to him often. He could talk about everything imaginable and always knew what was happening in the neighbourhood. I remember when your family moved into the neighbourhood as a child. Your dad gave me rides to school with Ruth. It was a great neighbourhood to grow up in. Mr Wainwright was a kind and caring person.

May he rest in peace, Roger

Rob, Ruth, Alison and families

I was surprised to see the notice of your Dad's death in the local paper. We definitely would have attended his service but unfortunately it had passed before we knew of his passing. Essie and I would run in to him from time to time and had recently mentioned him and were wondering how he was doing. We knew him from church and the Lions club. Your Dad was a kind man, always cheerful and laughing. We have many fond memories of parties and functions with the Lions. His strong faith and the knowledge that he is now with Fran are comforting. Your Dad was always so proud of you kids. He beamed when telling me about his first granddaughter and that her name is Frances. May all the happy memories comfort you at this difficult time. God Bless.
