We were blessed to have known Henrietta at our dental office and I had the privilege of providing services to her. She had wonderful stories and cared very much about her health and her family. She had a beautiful smile to match her beautiful soul. Although her body became fragile, she retained her strong spirit and was a wonderful example of faith in her God. I know she has gone ahead and enjoys being in the presence of her Lord and is waiting patiently to help us when we arrive. We extend prayers for peace and comfort to her family and friends as they mourn.
