Tribute from Dorothy Willms

Relation: My aunt

Dearest cousins, Vic and I (Dorothy) love you and loved your mom. Although Fort St. John is far from you, we saw each other at gatherings. Your often thought of and we are praying for you.

Tribute from Kris Foulds

Relation: A shared love of community history.

My deepest condolences to Hilda's family. She was an inspiring person who I am grateful to have known.

Tribute from McSween Colin

Relation: I know or knew Hilda's son Matt Born through Abbotsford Junior Secondary School where he taught some of my children a number of years ago.

Please accept our sincerest condolences in the passing of your loved one - Hilda. May it help assuage your sorrow to know that others know, care and feel your hurt. There is no other love like that of a dearly beloved mother's love. We will be away visiting family in northern B.C. for the next 2 weeks otherwise we would have been honored to have been able to attend Hilda's memorial service. Our heartfelt thoughts are with you.

Sincerely,

Colin McSween

Tribute from Bill Thiessen

Relation: A dear friend (and her husband) whom I knew for a long time. Bill

Dear members of the Born Family: I convey my sincere condolences, as I remember with deep respect your mother, Hilda. She had become a dear friend, who had the unique gift of encouragement, and who always encouraged me. I would like to write a longer tribute and send it to Brian, for the family. If Brian responds with his e-mail address, I will do so. Thanks, Bill Thiessen.
