Tribute from karen niessen

Relation: 35+ years family friend

Connie and Tracie-lynn, I am so sorry to find out about Ken. I know he had been sick in the last year, but never knew how bad.

Tracie, I understand the pain and hurt you are feeling right now and even after all these years the memories are still fresh and vivid. He will always be with you.

Connie, All my love and prayers are with you and hope you know how much I love you and Tracie, and Matt.

My heart hurts for you. Call me if need anything I can do for you.

Love Karen

Tribute from Tracie Richardson

Relation: Daughter

I miss you so much Daddy! I still expect it to be you on the other end of the phone each time it rings, I still expect to see you each time I enter the house, I hear your laughter in crowds, I wish you were still here. Thank you for being such an amazing dad! Love you always

Tribute from Sue Kennedy

Relation: Friend of Tracie Richardson

Please accept my heartfelt condolences, I know how close you were to your Dad and what an influence he had on your life, life will be very different without him here on earth. Your Dad was a truly kind human being, it doesn't seem fair that he has passed already. Remember what we were told as children, Santa is always watching - your Santa will forever be your guiding light, he's always with you in your heart and mind.

Tribute from Eddie Sorez

Relation: We are branches on the Poet Tree

Connie and Tracie, I hope you know the depth of respect I hold in my heart for Ken. We first corresponded over a dozen years ago and most recently last year. It is my sincere commitment that for as long as there is a Road Scribes Literary Fellowship that Ken will hold a place of Honor and Respect within our organization and his dedicated page on our website will remain as a tribute to the creative gift he shared with the thousands of individuals, those who have and those who will read his words and works. On behalf of the Road Scribes Fellowship Founders, Chartered Guardians, Members and Associates, our sincerest condolences to Ken's family and friends.
