Tribute from Annette Strom

Relation: Through my parents.

Maurice and Therese both have a special place in our hearts. My parents were Ray and Eveline Lenten and after my father was unable to drive, your parents picked them up for mass every Saturday night without fail. After my father passed they continued to do so until my mother's passing. It brought my parents so much joy and was a comfort to their family who all lived at a distance at that time. My husband and I now live in my parents condo on Countess Street and we often remember the kindness and thoughtfulness of both your parents. They lived a good long life and were a lovely couple... our condolences to your family.
