Relation: always will consider Neil a good friend

Always respected Neil's calm demeanor and thoughtful decision making. I had so much fun with him playing ball in the church league. He will be missed by all and has left us far too soon.

Tribute from Clare with Bev Neufeld

Relation: Dear friend and brother,

Neil, Linda and family:

You were always quietly supportive, deeply caring, and knew how to make one feel "at home".

Some of children have maintained a strength of connection worthy of being called "lifelong".

Neil & I shared many worthy moments together, within and beyond church life whether board meetings, worship services, golf games/tournaments, as well as shared grief.

At times of untimely grief, as when our Russ died, or his brother-in-law, Ed Schellenberg, Linda's brother's passing, etc. After the anticipated death of his mother- we "knew" how to share our grief.

It was not all sunshine & roses, but LIFE, as it was experienced.

I experienced Neil as a true friend, brother, mentor, and patient encourager (Barnabas). etc.

He now rests in peace, in God's vast waiting room, wondering when we will follow him, to our home beyond the stars.

We, as you, will miss him deeply.

May each of you enjoy the unmitigated everlasting presence & power of God's loving grace, in all the days yet to come.
