Tribute from Diorellys

Relation: friend

Dear Patty's family,

Through these lines I would like to express my deepest condolences and sorrow for the departure of such a special being, a woman of God, a warrior in prayer as Patty was.

I met Patty in Merida, Venezuela in 1994. She was a tremendous blessing in my life. She was my English teacher and a great friend.

Since then I had been in contact with her all these years. Although I know that we will see each other in heaven, I feel very sad for her death.

My parents Diogenes and Norellys in Venezuela knew her and also send their condolences to the whole family.

I am very sorry for your loss.

God bless and strengthen you in this difficult hour.

Many greetings from Berlin, Germany.

Diorellys + husband and our three children

My Dear Sweet friend, Oh how I miss you! I can still hear your soft voice saying " Hi my friend" or hey Sister, or simply hey Girlfriend!" All we're spoken in love! I miss our visits. We always prayed laughed and marvelled how God lead us throughout our walk with him. I miss your green eyes that sparkled with Gods love or with mischievousness. You were a gem. I will see you in heaven! Thanks Lord for giving me such a special friend!
