

REMEMBERING
Paul Przybylski

June 29, 1932 - April 7, 2013

Born in Chelm, Poland, Paul passed away peacefully at age 80. After World War II, he resided in Glückstadt, Germany and immigrated to Winnipeg, Canada in 1952. There he met Marianne, his wife of 58 years. Moving to Kitimat for his career, they raised 5 children: Susan (Rick), Doris, Robert (Damaris), Martin (Corinne), and Dennis (Carolyn). After Paul retired, he moved to Abbotsford in 1992, where he got involved in volunteering as a peer counselor and teaching ESL. Recently, Paul moved to the Menno Home. Paul loved the Lord, was a great storyteller, and had a positive attitude, even though he endured many health issues. He is survived by his wife, children, 7 grandchildren, and siblings Alfred (Karin), Erika, Rita (Georg), Benno (Brigitte), and Marlene (Don). A celebration of life service will be held at Bakerview MB Church, 2285 Clearbrook Road, Abbotsford on Monday, April 15th at 11:30 am. In lieu of flowers, donations to the Mennonite Benevolent Society would be appreciated.
