

REMEMBERING
Randy Almond

February 7, 1946 - August 18, 2012

Born February 7, 1946 passed away unexpectedly Saturday, August 18, 2012. Randy resided in English Bay for over 40 years and was a sitting Justice of the Peace, working for the Attorney General's office for 33 years. He was born and raised in Vanderhoof, the eldest of 10 siblings. Randy is survived by his mother Frances; sisters Marlene (Cy), Treva (Eric), brothers John (Terry), Brent, Scott, Barry, Robert, Richard (Lucia) and was a beloved uncle and great uncle to many nieces and nephews. He had a tight knit circle of friends who will miss him. He was predeceased by his father Scotty, and sister Lonnie. Prayers will be offered Monday, August 27 at 3:00 p.m. from Guardian Angel Catholic Church, 1161 Broughton St., Vancouver, A memorial Mass will be celebrated Saturday September 1 at 10:30 a.m. at St. Joseph's Catholic church in Vanderhoof.

